PEORIA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA ANNOUNCES #PSOATHOME PROGRAMMING

PEORIA, IL – The Peoria Symphony Orchestra (PSO) is excited to announce #PSOAtHome, a new digital series that brings music from our talented musicians and guest artists into your home. From live performances to recorded educational content, #PSOAtHome is a part of the PSO's mission to entertain, educate, and inspire through music.

Maestro George Stelluto notes,

"In this unusual time, the arts are even more important for keeping your spirits up and your minds engaged. So enjoy our wonderful online series #PSOAtHome—featuring our guest artists and PSO musicians bringing you music and creative messages of encouragement from around the world and around the corner."

A new webpage, peoriasymphony.org/psoathome, contains links to upcoming and past Facebook live events, #PSOAtHome YouTube videos, and links to other educational and live music content. Recent content includes a performance of the theme from Mission Impossible by Chicago Symphony Orchestra cellist and PSO Guest Artist Richard Hirschl and his family, story time with PSO violinist Rosemary Ardner, a live "driveway" performance by PSO Concertmaster Marcia Henry Liebenow, and more!
